

UNESCO Condemns Killing of Journalists Assassinated Journalists between 1993-1999

In 1993, the Director-General had publicly condemned the assassination of a journalist on an exceptional basis. In 1997, the 29th UNESCO General Conference adopted Resolution 29 "Condemnation of Violence Against Journalists". Since then, the Director-General has publicly condemned all killings of journalists, media workers and social media producers of a significant amount of public interest journalism.
