

Civil Society

Means of verification to focus the data

- Assessments of the impact of laws to support civil society
- Civil society organizations receive financial support from the State and have programmes and projects to support their members
- Diverse types of mechanisms established for civil society to participate in cultural policy design and implementation on national and local level (e.g. hearings, working groups, questionnaires, etc.)
- Evidence of cultural policies adopted with active involvement of civil society and in a broad range of cultural fields
- Civil society provides input to Parties' quadrennial periodic reports
- Civil society organizations from a broad range of cultural fields submit information documents to the governing bodies of the Convention

Global survey (n=110)

Response by region

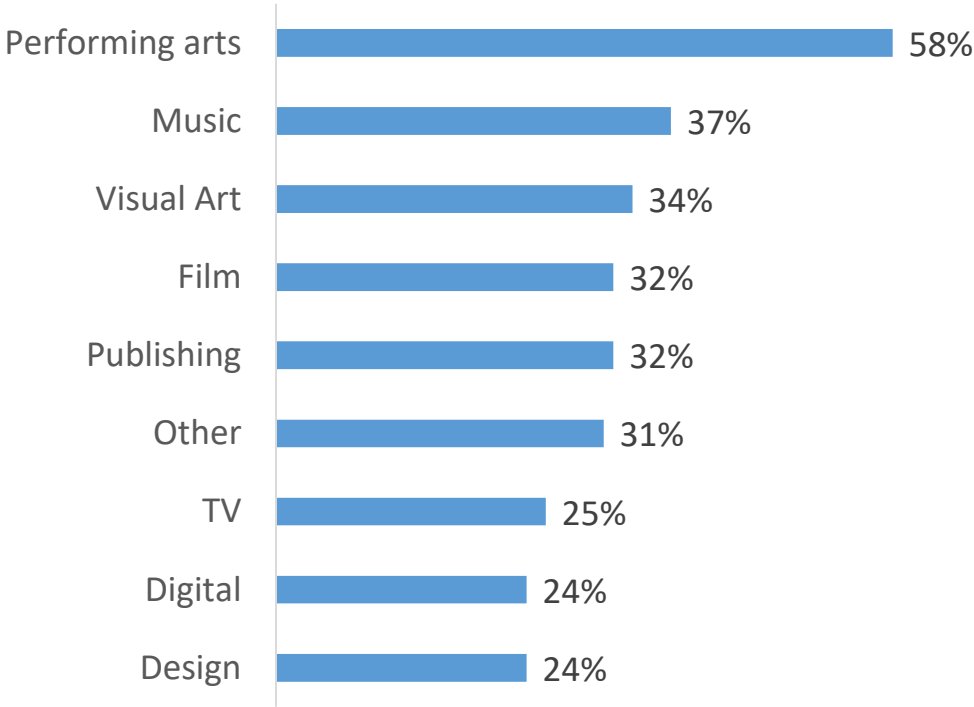

Response by region

Organisation type

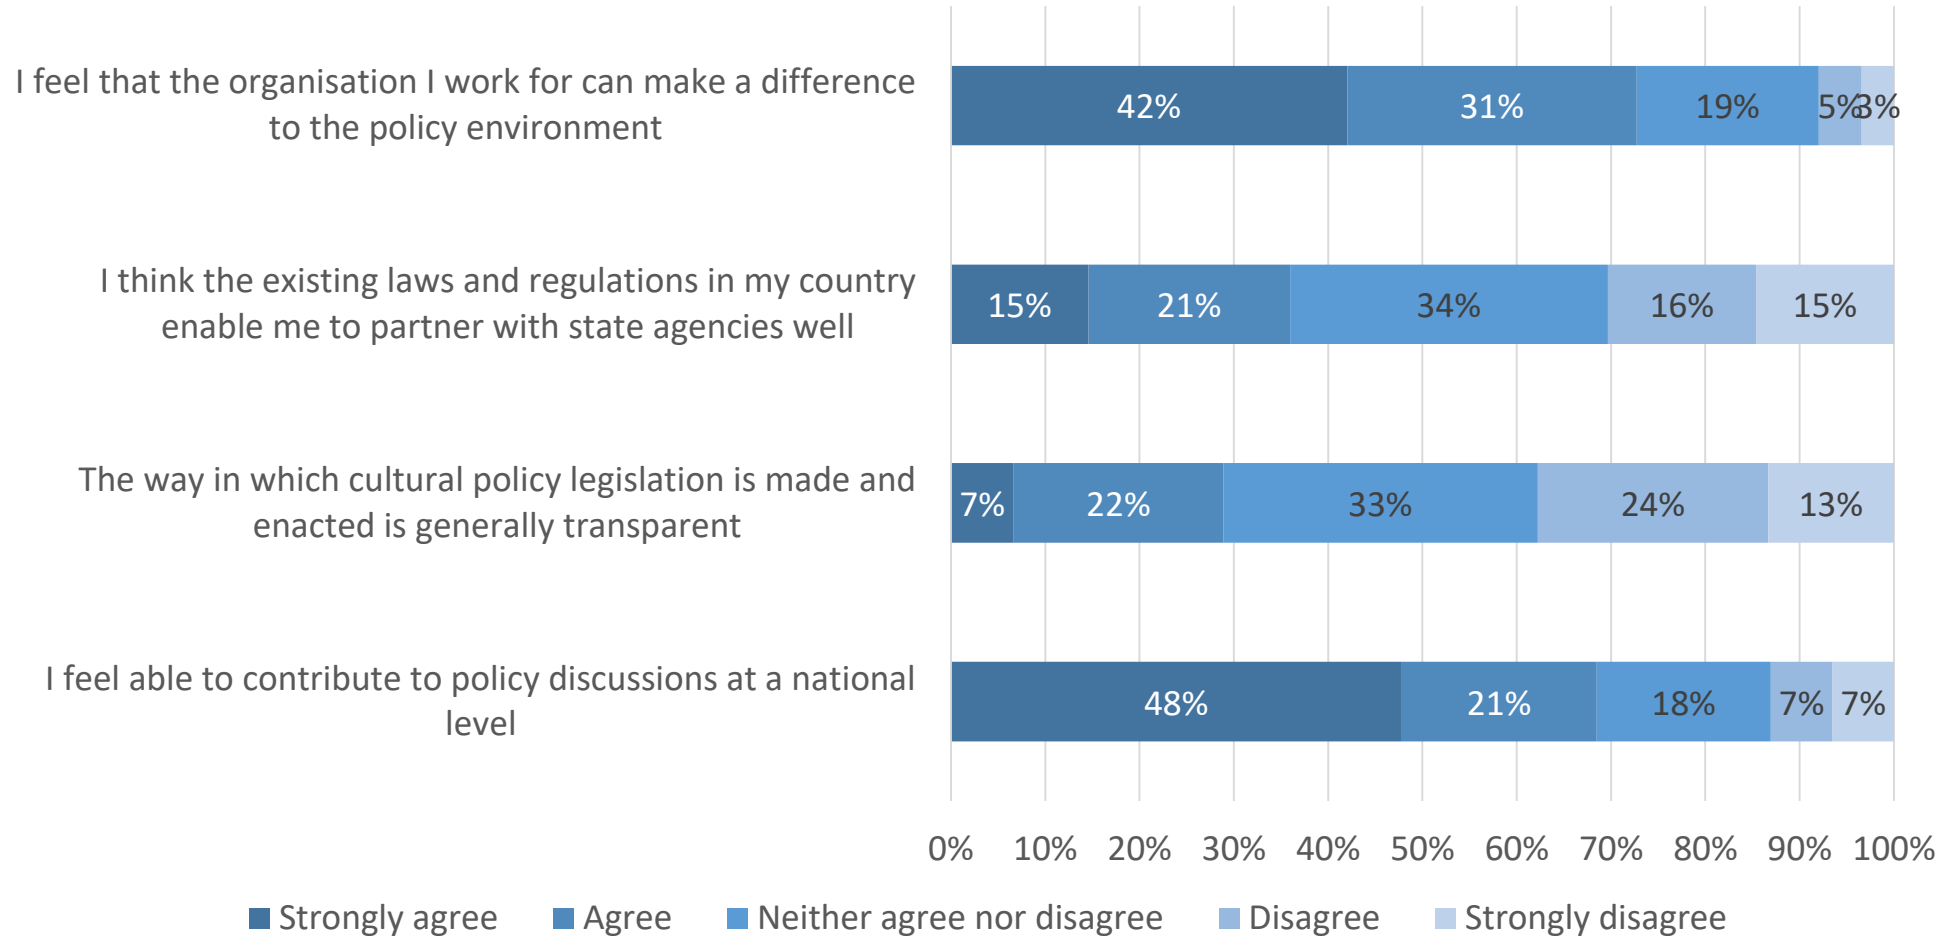

Sector type

Awareness and participation in the Convention and cultural policy making	Yes	No	n
Are you aware of the 2005 UNESCO Convention on the Protection and the Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions?	86%	14%	108
Have you contributed to any debates or discussions on the implementation of the Convention?	71%	29%	94
Have you contributed in any way to the quadrennial periodic reporting on the Convention's implementation in your country?	62%	38%	66
Are you involved in programmes, projects and events to raise awareness about the Convention?	66%	34%	65
Have you participated in any meetings of the governing bodies of the Convention?	31%	69%	51
Have you submitted information documents to the governing bodies of the Convention?	43%	57%	65
Have you contributed to any form of cultural policy consultation with the state in your country within the last five years? (e.g. a written submission, meeting, working group)?	56%	44%	96
Has your organisation taken part in any advocacy to try to improve laws, regulations and policies in order to improve the prospects for partnership with the state?	64%	36%	87

Opinions on cultural policy making

From which of the following sources have you received funding to support your work in the past 12 months?

Skills and collaboration	Yes	No	n
Do you think your organisation has sufficient skills and expertise to engage in cultural policymaking?	83%	17%	83
Do you believe your organisation has sufficient resources to partner with state agencies and take part in cultural policy opportunities and processes?	73%	28%	80
Do you regularly collaborate with other organisations (including organisations in your field and other civil society organisations) in response to policy agendas?	77%	23%	73

CDIS data

PARTICIPATION OF CULTURE PROFESSIONALS
NATIONAL LEVEL
Are there institutional mechanisms or organic structures (periodic meetings, committees) that provide for participation by representatives of culture sector professionals (guilds, associations, networks, etc.) in processes related to the formulation and implementation of cultural policies, measures and programmes that concern them?	YES
Can they be considered active (official meeting held in the last 24 months)? Or not (no official meeting held in the last 24 months)?	YES
Are they permanent in nature (e.g. committees)? Or ad hoc (e.g. meetings)?	Permanent
Are their resolutions binding? Or are they consultative?	Consultative
REGIONAL/MUNICIPAL/LOCAL LEVEL
Are there institutional mechanisms or organic structures (periodic meetings, committees) that provide for participation by representatives of culture sector professionals (guilds, associations, networks, etc.) in processes related to the formulation and implementation of cultural policies, measures and programmes that concern them?	YES
Can they be considered active (official meeting held in the last 24 months)? Or not (no official meeting held in the last 24 months)?	YES
Are they permanent in nature (e.g. committees)? Or ad hoc (e.g. meetings)?	Permanent
Are their resolutions binding? Or are they consultative?	Consultative

New data: Armenia, Georgia, Ukraine

Older data: Bosnia, Burkina Faso, Cambodia, Columbia, Ecuador, Ghana, Montenegro, Namibia, Peru, Swaziland, Uruguay, Viet Nam

In process

- CIVICUS survey of AGNA network members
- Global campaign for Education – exploring what data exists relating to involvement of civil society