2. Measures

Parties shall provide information on policies and measures adopted to protect and promote the diversity of cultural expressions within their territory (at the national, regional or local levels) and at the international level (including trans-regional or trans-national levels).

Information to be presented in this Section of the report is to be organized according to the following themes:

i) cultural policies and measures;
ii) international cooperation and preferential treatment;
iii) the integration of culture in sustainable development policies;
iv) protecting cultural expressions under threat.

Key questions:

Parties shall respond, to the extent possible, to the following questions for each theme:

(a) What are the main objective(s) of the policy or measure? When was it introduced?
(b) How has it been implemented, which public agency(ies) is (are) responsible for its implementation and what resources have been allocated to ensure implementation?
(c) What challenges have been identified in the implementation of this measure?
(d) What has been the effect or impact of the policy or measure? What indicators were used to lead to this conclusion?
2.1 Cultural policies and measures

The purpose of this section is to report on cultural policies and measures in place to promote the diversity of cultural expressions at the different stages of creation, production, distribution, dissemination and participation/enjoyment.

Measures may be understood as those that:
- nurture creativity,
- form part of an enabling environment for independent producers and distributors
- provide access to the public at large to diverse cultural expressions.

They may be regulatory or legislative, action or programme oriented, institutional or financial measures. They may be specifically introduced to address the special circumstances and needs of individuals (e.g. women, young people) or groups (e.g. persons belonging to minorities, indigenous people) as creators, producers or distributors of cultural expressions.

For more information on the types of measures to be reported on, please refer to Article 6, Rights of Parties at the national level, and the Operational Guidelines adopted on Article 7 on measures to promote cultural expressions.
2.1 Cultural policies and measures

2.1 Cultural policies and measures

Yes ✗

If yes, what was the impact:

What indicators were used to lead to this conclusion?
The purpose of this section is to report on measures aimed at facilitating international cooperation and preferential treatment to artists and cultural professionals, as well as cultural goods and services from developing countries.

Measures are understood as legal, institutional and financial frameworks, policy and programme activities that, for example:

- support the mobility of artists and cultural professionals abroad (sending and receiving);
- provide greater market access for the distribution of cultural goods and services from developing countries through specific agreements;
- strengthen independent cultural industries as a means to contribute to economic growth, poverty reduction and sustainable development;
- aim to build institutional and management capacities through international cultural exchange programmes or partnerships among civil society organizations and networks.

For more information on the types of measures to be reported on, please refer to Article 12 (Promotion of international cooperation), Article 14 (Cooperation for development), Article 16 (Preferential treatment for developing countries) and their corresponding Operational Guidelines.

Jordan is one of the first countries which signed the Agreement on Protection and Promotion of Diversity of Cultural Expressions 2007, and has made placed effort since then to move forward with implementation of the articles of the mentioned agreement which aims at enhancing diversity of cultural expressions. Jordan has carried out a number of procedures with regards to the agreement including:

1- Establishment of a Directorate for Cultural Heritage at the Ministry, which aims at protection and enhancement of intangible cultural heritage, in addition to protection and enhancement of cultural expression forms, which in turn support the implementation of the articles stated in the agreement.

2- General secretary for the ministry of culture JERYES SAMAWI has been chosen as the Spokesperson for the agreement responsible for explanation and promotion of its articles, who is the representative of Jordan in the Agreement on Protection and Promotion of Diversity of Cultural Expression.

3- Identifying a Liaison Officer with the secretariat at UNESCO for information sharing with regards to the Agreement on Protection and Promotion of Diversity of Cultural Expression, Mr. Zaid Ajloni, Head of Documentation and Research Unit at the Ministry, has been selected for the mentioned post to carry out the mentioned tasks.

4- Publication of book on Cultural Diversity in cooperation with a number of researchers in the field of Heritage so as to compile rich material from the heritage of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, that would in turn enrich cultural diversity. It is worth mentioning that this book contains an intensified unit on the agreement and on main challenges with regards to implementation of its articles.

5- Providing support to a good number of institutions and NGOs which play a role in enhancing the articles of the agreement.

6- Commencement of a major project which includes a national database on cultural diversity called "almaknez" where components of the Jordanian Cultural heritage are combined, documented, saved and published within a dictionary and through a special website. The beneficiaries of this project are researchers in the field of heritage, writers, poets, academics and stakeholders.

7- Preparation for implementation of specialized programmes and projects, and workshops on the topic of cultural heritage and on the Agreement on Protection and Promotion of Diversity of Cultural Expressions aiming at raising awareness with regards to the agreement and to explain its articles and values.

8- Strengthening international cooperation through signing cultural international agreements which contribute to increasing cultural communication channels and to promote cultural products of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan and friendly countries and contribute to promotion and enhancement of cultural expression forms.

b) main challenges encountered or foreseen

Few challenges facing with regards to the implementation of the articles of the agreement, these challenges can be summarized in the difficulty of the terminology related to the subject. The Ministry has carried our necessary procedures to overcome this challenges through distribution of the agreement to civil society organisations and by publishing news and topics related to Cultural diversity in different forms of media.

c) solutions found or envisaged to overcome those challenges

d) steps planned for the next four years towards implementation of the Convention and priority activities to be undertaken during that period
