16.—(1) The National Arts Council Act, 1974 is repealed.

(2) The National Music Council Act, 1974 is repealed.

17.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 16 all the assets and liabilities of the National Arts Council established by the National Arts Council Act, 1974 and of the National Music Council established under the National Music Council Act, 1974 hereinafter referred to as the “former Councils” shall, by virtue of this section and without further assurance, be deemed to have been vested in the Council as from the date when this Act comes into operation (hereinafter referred to as the “effective date”).

(2) Every person who, immediately before the effective date was managing the affairs and business of the former Councils shall upon the enactment of this Act, do all things that are necessary or desirable for the effectual vesting in accordance with the provisions of this Act of the assets and liabilities of former Councils subsisting immediately before the effective date.

(3) Where before the enactment of this Act any person who, immediately before the effective date, was responsible for the management of the affairs and business of the former Councils did, or purported to do any lawful act in relation to the assets and liabilities of any of the Council which if done after the enactment of this Act would have been necessary or desirable for the more effectual vesting of the assets and liabilities of the former Councils in the Council, such lawful act shall be deemed to have been done under this Act, and its performance by that person shall not be called into question in any court by reason only of that act having done before the enactment of this Act.
18.—(1) Every person employed by any of the former Councils before the effective date shall be deemed to have become employed by the Council as from the effective date and, as from the enactment of this Act, shall be employed by the Council.

(2) Where any person who, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1) is deemed to have become an employee of the Council as from the effective date becomes an employee of the Council after the enactment of this Act, the terms and conditions of service applicable to him in his employment with the Council shall be not less favourable than those which were applicable to him before the effective date.

SCHEDULE

Section 3 (2)

CONSTITUTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

1.—(1) The Council shall consist of—

(a) a Chairman, who shall be appointed by the President; and who shall hold office for a period of three years and not exceeding six years unless it is necessary or desirable to do so;

(b) twenty-nine other members who shall be appointed by the Minister.

(2) A member of the Council shall, unless his appointment is sooner terminated by the Minister or he otherwise ceases to be a member, hold office for such period as the Minister may specify in his appointment or, if no such period is specified, for a period of three years from the date of his appointment, and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(3) Any member of the Council may at any time resign by giving notice in writing to the Minister and from the date of the receipt by the Minister of the notice, he shall cease to be a member of the Council.

(4) If any member of the Council is without the permission of the Council absent from more than four consecutive meetings of the Council or without such permission is absent from the United Republic for a period exceeding one year he shall cease to be a member of the Council.

2. Where any member of the Council ceases to be a member before the normal expiration of his term of office, the Minister after consulting the Council may appoint another person in his stead to hold office until such first-named person's term of office would have expired had he not ceased to be a member as aforesaid.

3. The Council shall elect from amongst its members a Vice-Chairman who shall hold office for one year but shall be eligible for re-election.

4.—(1) The Council shall meet at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business.

(2) At any meeting of the Council fifteen members thereof shall constitute a quorum.

(3) At any meeting of the Council, the Chairman shall preside or, in the absence of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman shall preside or if the Vice-Chairman is also absent the members present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to be Chairman for that meeting.

(4) In the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

5. Minutes in proper form of each meeting of the Council shall be kept and shall be confirmed by the Council at the next meeting and signed by the Chairman of that meeting.
6. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 relating to a quorum, the Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the membership thereof and no act or proceeding of the Council shall be invalid by reason only of some defect in the appointment of a person who purports to be a member thereof.

Passed in the National Assembly on the First day of November, 1984.

Clerk of the National Assembly
