
The ILO CINTERFOR perspective on TVET in times of COVID 19

Presentation during a UNESCO webinar on 29 July 2020

Montevideo, Uruguay

Senior Specialist in Enterprise, Productivity and TVET - Michael Axmann
What does ILO CINTERFOR offer?

A team of ILO specialists in Montevideo, Uruguay for TVET for Latin America and the Caribbean, Portugal, Spain & Cabo Verde

Network and “think tank” in skills development for more than 70 TVET institutions in 30 countries of Latin America and the Caribbean, Portugal, Spain, and Cabo Verde

South-south co-operation and triangular and collaborative learning
5 Key questions to be addressed: What is/are …

1. the current situation in the provision of TVET programs at different types and levels of education?
   12 webinars by ILO CINTERFOR between March and June 2020, providing a platform of discussion

2. measures taken by national governments to ensure continuity of skills development programs?
   Online-courses, depending on IT infrastructure of institutions and recipients of programs

3. available in each country to support continuity of skills development programs?
   Different settings, but trends towards more digitalization and adapting to “new normality”

4. the main challenges to guarantee continuity of TVET training programs during the pandemic?
   Unfamiliarity of situation with lacking resources, missing social dialogue mechanisms, but efforts to redesign

5. possibilities/opportunities for international and regional cooperation from multilateral agencies or the exchange of experiences and TVET resources among countries in the region?
   Building back better TVET, for example with more quality apprenticeships and pre-apprenticeships
