39TH
GENERAL CONFERENCE

No.14

Highlights

- Adoption of the Appropriation Resolution for 2018-2019
- Closure of the 39th Session of the General Conference

Yesterday

The investiture ceremony of Audrey Azoulay as Director-General of UNESCO took place in a special plenary meeting of the General Conference

Audrey Azoulay was sworn in as the new Director-General of UNESCO on Monday before the 39th session of the General Conference. Invoking the challenges facing the Organization, she focused on the pertinence of UNESCO's mandate in her investiture speech. "Despite many limits and constraints, UNESCO has been able to demonstrate throughout its history a real capacity to bring creative responses to the challenges of the times," said Ms Azoulay. Audrey Azoulay is the 11th Director-General of UNESCO and the second woman in that position.

She will take office on 15 November.
