Governance - Alignment

Dankert Vedeler, vice-chair of UIS Governing Board

Paris, March 2019
UIS – A special case

- A UNESCO flagship
- Its work benefits Member states, UN-system, INGOs, civil society,
- Progress and comparability
- Covers all UNESCO’s sectors
- Closely aligned with UNESCO governance system
UIS – Alignment with 39 C/Resolution 87 Governance

- Working with Member states (defining, collecting, processing, publishing)
- C/5 Alignment follow-up - Work Program and Budget fully aligned
- Governing Board and Bureau – composition, rotation and transparency policies
- Gender neutral language since 2012
- Reporting to UNESCO 3 organs
- Structured Financing dialogue (para 128)
UIS – alignment challenges

• Inputs to Medium Term Strategy C/4 and Program/Budget C/5

• Resource mobilization – sustainable funding

• UIS alignment with other Cat. 1 Institutes for the chair to present its work at the General Conference

• Information dissemination to enhance visibility and dialogue with MS

• Language

• Sharing of best practices including inviting UIS chairperson to relevant meetings
