1 In accordance with Article 11 (9), upon the outbreak of hostilities, a Party to the conflict may request, on an emergency basis, enhanced protection of cultural property under its jurisdiction or control. Please check paragraph 65 of the Guidelines for the Implementation of the 1999 Second Protocol.

2 The list of annexes is not exhaustive. An applicant state may be requested to provide other attachments to support the request.
1. IDENTIFICATION OF THE CULTURAL PROPERTY

1.1 Name of the cultural property
This is the official name of the property that will appear in publications, on the UNESCO website, and in all official correspondence and documentation.
Do not exceed 200 characters, including spaces and punctuation.

1.2 Category of the cultural property
Select one of the types of a cultural property described under Article 1 of the Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict.

As described under Article 1 (a) of the Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict ("the 1954 Hague Convention"), monuments of architecture, art or history, whether religious or secular; archeological sites; groups of buildings which, as a whole, are of historical or artistic interest; works of art; manuscripts, books and other objects of artistic, historical or archeological interest; as well as scientific collections and important collections of books or archives or of reproductions of the properties defined on the right column.

As described under Article 1 (b) of the 1954 Hague Convention, museums, large libraries and depositories of archives, and refuges intended to shelter, in the event of armed conflict, movable cultural property.

As described under Article 1 (c) of the 1954 Hague Convention, centers containing a large amount of cultural property.

Category A

A.1 Immovable cultural property
- Monuments of architecture, art or history (religious or secular)
- Archeological sites
- Groups of buildings of historical or artistic interest
- Other

A.2 Movable cultural property
- Work of art
- Manuscripts
- Books
- Other objects of artistic, historical or archeological interest
- Scientific collections
- Important collections of books
- Important collections of archives
- Other

Category B

Building whose main and effective purpose is to preserve or exhibit movable cultural property

Category C

Center containing monuments
1.3 Location of the cultural property

Indicate State, Province or Region, where the cultural property is located or stored.

Provide UTM coordinates of the approximate central point.

A list of UTM coordinates indicating the course of the property boundary, and, as appropriate, its immediate surroundings, and corresponding maps and plans must be provided as Annex 1.

In case of movable cultural property UTM coordinates of the building/shelter where the property is stored or will be stored must be provided.

1.4 Area of the cultural property in hectares (ha)

For immovable cultural property, indicate area of the property and, as appropriate, its immediate surroundings.

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE CULTURAL PROPERTY

2.1 Description and history of the cultural property

Provide a description of the cultural property at the date of request highlighting its greatest importance for humanity. Based on the category of cultural property (see Section 1.2), the description should refer to all the exceptionally culturally significant features of the cultural property, including those on the present state of conservation, the appearance of the cultural property, as well as its history and development. This includes a description of how the cultural property has reached its present form and the significant changes that it has undergone.

In case of movable cultural property of Category A, information on its physical characteristics (size, weight, etc.), author (if known), cultural significance, previous locations shall be provided (also see Section 1.3).

In case of cultural properties of Category B, it is not necessary to describe each movable cultural property, but important properties should be described individually and an account should be given as far as possible of the internal planning of the building.

In case of cultural properties of Category C, it is not necessary to describe each individual building, but important public and/or private buildings should be described individually and an account should be given of the planning or layout of the area, its street pattern and so on.
3. GREATEST IMPORTANCE FOR HUMANITY

3.1 Justification for inscription

Paragraph (a) of Article 10 of the 1999 Second Protocol

This section must make clear why the property is considered to be of “Greatest Importance for Humanity”.

This section should highlight information to assess whether the property is of exceptional cultural importance (paragraph 33 of the Guidelines), and/or unique (paragraph 34 of the Guidelines) and/or whether its destruction would constitute an irreplaceable loss to humanity (paragraph 35 of the Guidelines).

It should not include detailed descriptive material about the property or its management, which are addressed in other sections.

In case of cultural properties inscribed on the World Heritage List or the List of the World Heritage in Danger or the Memory of the World International Register, please indicate the respective links on the UNESCO website.

4. PROTECTION OF THE CULTURAL PROPERTY

4.1 Identification and safeguarding measures

In accordance with Article 5 of the 1999 Second Protocol, provide information on preparatory measures taken in time of peace for the safeguarding of cultural property against the foreseeable effects of armed conflict. These measures may include, as appropriate, the preparation of inventories, the planning of emergency measures for protection against fire or structural collapse, the preparation for the removal of movable cultural property or the provision for adequate in situ protection of such property, and the designation of competent authorities responsible for the safeguarding of cultural property.

4.2 Military planning and military training

In accordance with Article 30 of the 1999 Second Protocol, provide information on the incorporation of guidelines and instructions on the protection of cultural property in military regulations, as well as information on peacetime training and educational programmes for the members of armed forces.
4.3 Criminal legislation

Provide information on criminal legislation providing for the repression of, and jurisdiction over, offenses committed against cultural property under enhanced protection within the meaning of, and in accordance with, Chapter 4 of the 1999 Second Protocol.

4.4 Relevant national legislation

Provide information on relevant national legislation governing the protection of the cultural property concerned along with information related to the 1954 Hague Convention.

5. USE OF THE CULTURAL PROPERTY

5.1 Use of the cultural property

Describe the current use of the cultural property. Provide all relevant information to establish that the property is not used for military purposes or to shield military sites.
5.2 Non-military use declaration

The non-military use declaration certifying that the cultural property will not be used for military purposes or to shield military sites shall be attached (Article 10(c) of the Second Protocol) as Annex 4.

MODEL

Non-military use declaration

On behalf of [the Party which has control over the cultural property], I hereby declare that, in conformity with Article 10 of the Second Protocol, [the cultural property for which enhanced protection was requested] will not be used for military purposes or to shield military sites.

[Signature of the representative authorized by the Party which has control over the cultural property as competent for this matter]
