

LOW-COST WAYS FOR YOUTH ORGANIZATIONS TO CELEBRATE

Global Media and Information Literacy Week 2020

MIL

Register and promote your events/activities at:
<https://on.unesco.org/3cqFcwr>

Host an online
happy hour

Invite your friends and colleagues over for a virtual gathering during Global MIL Week to share ideas on youth engagement in MIL.

Showcase your MIL endeavors to fight disinformation cycles

What actions and tasks have you performed to tackle disinfodemic? Showcase them on social media with #GlobalMILWeek.

Sponsor a call to action or start a petition on MIL

What issues on MIL are unique to you, your group or country? A petition can help bring attention to them.

Organize a webinar
with focus group discussions

Host a live session to discuss
#GlobalMILWeek 2020 sub-themes.

Submit edutainment
content related to MIL

Encourage your members to submit edutainment content (video, meme, podcast) demonstrating the role of MIL to resist disinfodemic: <https://on.unesco.org/2RYRt1X>

Sign the MIL CLICKS Pact and commit to be a MIL CLICKer

Download the pact here: <https://en.unesco.org/MILCLICKS>, sign and share it on your website and/or social media page.

Want to participate but don't know how? Drop us a message at gapmil-youth@lists.unesco.org and we can help you with some ideas!
