Travelling

Airport transfer
It’s easy to get to and from the airport with the shuttle bus service Flygbussarna and the journey time is between 25 and 30 minutes. Buses leave from right outside the terminal building and the final stop is the main bus station Nils Ericssonterminalen in central Gothenburg. There is also a stop outside the conference venue at Korsvägen. Taxi or rental cars are also available at the airport.

- Landvetter airport https://www.swedavia.com/landvetter/
- Swedavia - Airlines flying to Landvetter https://www.swedavia.com/landvetter/airlines/

Arriving by train (6)
Gothenburg Central Station is best reached by taking the tram lines 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 9, 11 or 13 to the stop Drottningtorget. In the same building as the central station you also find the bus terminal, Nils Ericson Terminalen. Getting around town
In Gothenburg, trams, buses and boats are always included in your public transport ticket/card. All tickets and travelling cards can be purchased at any of the public transport operator Västrafik’s sales outlets, or in the app To Go. Read more about options, prices, maps and apps on how to get around town here: https://www.goteborg.com/en/good-to-know/getting-around-town/

Visiting Göteborg

See and do, eat and drink
What to see and do and where to eat and drink? – the options are many. Whether if you have some time over outside the conference or if you want to extend your stay in Gothenburg you can find recommendations and be inspired on Gothenburg’s official Visitor Guide: http://www.goteborg.com/en/

Visa

Sweden is a member of the EU. If you are visiting Sweden for a conference or a business trip and are a citizen of a non-EU country, you may need a visa.
