(2) References in sections 2 and 3 of this Act to the prescribed fee are references to the fee prescribed under section 24 of this Act.

Article 2. Restriction on use of detection devices.
(1) Subject to the provisions of this section a person shall not

(a) use or be in possession of a detection device
    (i) in, or at the site of, a monument of which the Commissioners or a local authority are the owners or guardians or in respect of which a preservation order is in force or which stands registered in the Register, or
    (ii) in an archaeological area that stands registered in the Register, or
    (iii) in a restricted area,
    or

(b) use, at a place other than a place specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection, a detection device for the purpose of searching for archaeological objects, or

(c) promote, whether by advertising or otherwise, the sale or use of detection devices for the purpose of searching for archaeological objects.
(a) Upon application in writing therefor to the Commissioners by any person and upon being furnished by him with such information as they may reasonably require and upon payment to them by the person of the prescribed fee (if any), the Commissioners may, at their discretion, subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, grant or refuse to grant their consent in writing to a person

(i) authorising the use by (as may be specified in the consent) either that person or that person and his servants and agents of (as may be specified in the consent) one detection device or one specified detection device or one detection device of a specified class, kind or type, for the purpose of searching for archaeological objects at a specified place (not being a place specified in subsection (1) (a) of this section), or

(ii) authorising the use and possession by (as may be specified in the consent) either that person or that person and his servants and agents of (as may be specified in the consent) one detection device or one specified detection device or one detection device of a specified class, kind or type, at a place specified in the consent (being a place specified in the said subsection (1) (a)).

(b) A decision to grant or refuse to grant a consent under this subsection in relation to a national monument of which a local authority are the owners or the guardians shall be made, and the consent shall be granted or refused, jointly by the Commissioners and the authority.

(c) A consent under this subsection shall remain in force for such period as may be specified in the consent.

(d) A consent under this subsection may—

(i) be made subject to such conditions as the Commissioners, or the Commissioners and the local authority concerned, as may be appropriate, think fit and specify in the consent, and

(ii) be revoked in writing at any time by the Commissioners or the Commissioners and the local authority concerned, as may be appropriate, and the revocation shall take effect at the time when the person named in the consent is notified of the revocation.

(3) Where an application is made to the Commissioners for a consent under subsection (2) of this section—

(a) the Commissioners or the Commissioners and the local authority concerned, as may be appropriate, shall, within three months of the receipt by them of the application—

(i) either grant or refuse to grant the application, and

(ii) notify in writing the person who made the application of their decision, and

(b) if the person who made the application is not notified as aforesaid of their decision, the Commissioners, or the Commissioners and the local authority concerned, as may be appropriate, shall be deemed to have granted the consent without conditions.

(4) An application to the Commissioners under subsection (2) of this section shall be sent to the Commissioners by registered post or delivered by hand to an officer of the Commissioners at the head office of the Commissioners.
(5) A person who contravenes subsection (1) of this section or a condition of a consent under this section shall be guilty of an offence.

(6) Where in a prosecution for an offence under this section it is proved that a detection device was being used, it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved that the device was being used for the purpose of searching for archaeological objects.

(7) It shall be a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (5) of this section to show that the act constituting the offence—

(a) was the subject of a consent under this section granted to him, or to a person in relation to whom he was acting as servant or agent at the time of the commission of the act, and in force at that time and was not a breach of a condition of the consent, or

(b) was authorised by a prospecting licence granted under Part II of the Minerals Development Act, 1940.

(8) In this section "detection device" means a device designed or adapted for detecting or locating any metal or mineral on or in the ground, on, in or under the seabed or on or in land covered by water, but does not include a camera.

Article 3.
Protection of sites of historic wrecks.

(1) Where the Commissioners are satisfied in respect of any place on, in or under the seabed of the territorial waters of the State or on, in or under the seabed to which section 2(1) of the Continental Shelf Act, 1968, applies or on or in land covered by water that—

(a) it is or may prove to be the site where a wreck or an archaeological object lies or formerly lay, and

(b) on account of the historical, archaeological or artistic importance of the wreck or the object, the site ought to be protected.

they may by order (in this section referred to is "an underwater heritage order") designate in area of the seabed, or land covered by water, around and including the site as a restricted area.

(2) The following provisions shall apply in relation to an underwater heritage order (and paragraphs (c) and (d)of this subsection shall apply, in relation to an order revoking such an order):

(a) the restricted area shall he specified in the order and shall lie of such size as the Commissioners think necessary for the protection of the site concerned,

(b) the order shall come into operation on the day specified in that behalf therein, or, if no such day is specified, on the seventh day after the day on which it is made,

(c) the order shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be published in Iris Oifigiúil and in one or more newspapers circulating in the district in which the restricted area aforesaid is situated or, in case the restricted area concerned is an

(e) the Commissioners may by order revoke the order.

(c) deposit, so as to fall and lie abandoned on the sea bed or land covered by water, as the case may be, anything which, if it were to fall on the site (whether it so falls or not) would wholly or partly obliterate the site or obstruct access to it, or damage any part of the wreck or object.

(5) (a) Upon application therefore to the Commissioners by any person and upon being furnished by him with such information in relation to the application as they may reasonably require and upon payment to them by the person of the prescribed fee (if any), the Commissioners may, at their discretion, after consultation with (in the case of an application relating to the sea bed) the Minister for the Marine and with such other (if any) persons having a special knowledge of or interest in the matter as they consider ought to be consulted, grant or refuse to grant a licence in writing to a person authorising the doing by (as may he specified in the licence) that person or that person and his servants and agents, subject to such conditions as the Commissioners may think fit and specify in the licence—

(i) in a specified restricted area or it specified part of such an area of the acts specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (3) of this section or of such of them its may be specified, or

(ii) at a specified site to which subsection (4) of this section applies or at it specified part of such a site of the acts specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (4) of this section or of such of them as may be specified.

(b) A licence under this subsection shall remain in force for such period as may be specified in the licence.

(c) A licence under this subsection may—

(i) be made subject to such conditions (if any) as the Commissioners think fit and specify in the licence, and

(ii) may he revoked at any time by the Commissioners and the revocation shall take effect at the time when the person named in the licence is notified of the revocation or at such later time its may be specified in the revocation.

(d) Where an application is made to the Commissioners for a licence under this subsection—
(i) they shall, within three months of the receipt by them of the application—
   (I) either grant or refuse to grant the application, and
   (II) notify in writing the person who made the application of their decision, and

(ii) if the person who made the application is not notified as aforesaid of their decision, the Commissioners shall he deemed to have granted the licence, without conditions.

(e) An application to the Commissioners for a licence under this subsection shall be sent to the Commissioners by registered post or delivered by hand to an officer of the Commissioners at the head office of the Commissioners.

(6) A person who finds a wreck (being a wreck, which is more than 100 years old) or other object (being an archaeological object) that is lying on, in or under the sea bed on or in land covered by water, shall, within 4 days after such finding, make it report of the finding to a member of the Garda Síochána or to the Commissioners and shall, when making the report, give to the member or to the Commissioners his name and address, state the nature of the wreck or other object and the time and place at which and the circumstances in which it was found by him and shall also (and whether he has or has not made such report as aforesaid and irrespective of the person to whom he has made such report (if any)) give to any member of the Garda Síochána or to an officer of the Commissioners on request any information within his knowledge in relation to the wreck, or other object.

(7) A person who contravenes subsection (3), (4) or (6) of this section or a condition of a licence under subsection (5) of this section, shall be guilty of an offence.

(8) It shall be a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to show that the act constituting the offence was the subject of a licence under this section granted to him, or to a person in relation to whom he was acting as servant or agent at the time of the commission of the act, and in force at that time.

   (a) in the course of any action taken by him for the sole purpose of dealing with an emergency of any description, or

   (b) out of necessity due to stress of weather or navigational hazards.

(10) If wreck that is an archaeological object and was removed from a restricted area is in the possession of the receiver of wreck for any district and no person establishes a claim under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to the ownership of the wreck within one year after it came into the possession of the said receiver, the said receiver shall, as the Director of the National Museum may request, either—

   (a) deliver the wreck to the Director of the National Museum who, as soon as may be after such delivery, shall—

      (i) retain it on behalf of the State, and

      (ii) pay—

      (I) to the said receiver, any expenses incurred by him, and his fees, in relation to the wreck, and
(II) to any salvors of the wreck, such amount of salvage as appears to the Director of the National Museum to be reasonable in all the circumstances,

or

(b) sell the wreck and pay the proceeds of the sale (after deducting therefrom the expenses of the sale and any other expenses incurred by him, and his fees, in relation to the wreck and paying to any salvors of the wreck such amount of salvage as appears to the Director of the National Museum to be reasonable in all the circumstances) to the Minister for Finance.

(11) (a) Proceedings for an offence under this section committed in an area consisting of part of the sea bed may be taken, and the offence may for all incidental purposes be treated as having been committed, in any place in the State.

(b) Proceedings for an offence under this section committed in an area consisting of land that is covered by water and is situated in two or more District Court districts, may be taken, and the offence may for all incidental purposes be treated as having been committed, in any one of those districts.

(12) Section 2 (1) of this Act and subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall not apply to a member of the Garda Síochána, or a member of the Defence Forces, on duty, or to a person while acting on the instructions of the Commissioners.

(v) Queen’s University, Belfast,
(vi) Bord Fáitte Éireann,
(vii) the Royal Irish Academy,
(viii) the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland,
(ix) the Royal Institute of the Architects of Ireland,
(x) the Maritime Institute of Ireland,
and
(f) such other persons not exceeding five in number as the Minister may determine from time to time.

(4) (a) There shall be a chairman of the Council.

(b) The chairman of the Council shall be appointed from time to time as occasion requires by the Minister from amongst the members of the Council.

(5) (a) Subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, the term of office of a member of the Council shall be six years but members of the Council shall, upon the expiry of their terms of office, be eligible for re-appointment to the Council from time to time.

(b) The term of office of eight (who shall be chosen by the Council by lot from amongst the members of the Council other than the chairman) of the members of the Council first appointed after the establishment of the Council shall be three years.

(6) Where a member of the Council dies, resigns or is temporarily unable to act as such member, the Minister may appoint another person to be a member of the Council in his place for such period as the Minister may determine and where the first-mentioned member was nominated for appointment to the Council by a person specified in subsection (3) of this section, the person appointed under this subsection shall be nominated for appointment to the Council by the person so specified.

(7) The Council may act notwithstanding one or more vacancies among its members.

(8) There may be paid to members of the Council by the Minister, out of moneys to be provided by the Oireachtas, such amounts in respect of travelling and subsistence or other expenses incurred by members of the Council in the performance of their functions as such members as the Minister may determine.

(9) The Council shall regulate, by rules or otherwise, the procedure and business of the Council.

(10) References in any other Act or instrument made thereunder to the National Monuments Advisory Council shall be construed as references to the Historic Monuments Council.

Article 5.
Register of Historic Monuments.

(1) The Commissioners shall cause to be established and maintained a register of historic monuments which shall be known as “the Register of Historic Monuments” and is referred to in this Act as “the Register”.

(2) The Commissioners shall cause to be entered in the Register the name, location and a brief description of—

(a) the historic monuments in the State which are known to them upon the commencement of this section, (b) the other archaeological areas in the State which are known to them upon such commencement, and
(c) any historic monuments, or other archaeological areas, which become known to them after such commencement and which, in their opinion, should be so entered.

(3) The Commissioners may amend or delete an entry in the Register.

(4) Subject to subsection (6) of this section, the Commissioners shall, as soon as may be after the establishment of the Register, cause to be published in Iris Oifigiúil a list specifying the historic monuments and archaeological areas then entered in the Register and such extracts, if any, from the Register in relation to those monuments and areas as they think appropriate.

(5) The Commissioners shall, as soon as may be after the making of an addition to, amendment of, or deletion from the Register, cause notice of the addition, amendment or deletion to be published in Iris Oifigiúil.

(6) The name, location and a brief description of a monument that was included in a list published in Iris Oifigiúil pursuant to section 8 of the National Monuments (Amendment) Act, 1954, shall be entered in the Register, but subsection (4) of this section shall not apply in relation to the monument.

(7) Where—

(a) an entry is made in the Register in respect of a historic monument, or other archaeological area, or

(b) an entry made in the Register in respect of a monument or other archaeological area is amended or deleted, the Commissioners shall, as soon as may be, cause the reputed owner and (if the owner is not the occupier) the reputed occupier of the monument or area to be notified in writing of the entry, amendment or deletion as the case may be and, in a case to which paragraph (a) of this subsection applies, of the penalties which may be incurred by a person guilty of an offence under this section or section 2 of this Act.

(8) Where the owner or occupier (not being the Commissioners) of a historic monument or archaeological area that is entered in the Register or any other person proposes to carry out, or to cause or permit the carrying out of, any work at or in relation to the monument or area, he shall give notice in writing of his proposal to the Commissioners and shall not, except in a case of urgent necessity and with the consent of the Commissioners, commence the work for a period of two months after having given the notice.

(9) A notification under subsection (7) of this section shall be sent to the person concerned by registered post or be delivered to him by hand by an officer, servant or agent of the Commissioners.

(10) A person shall not, otherwise than in accordance with subsection (8) of this section or a consent under section 14 (2) of the Principal Act, demolish or remove wholly or in part or disfigure, deface, alter or in any manner interfere with a historic monument that is entered in the Register.

(11) A person who contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence.

(12) Prima facie evidence of the fact that a historic monument or archaeological area is entered in the Register may be given in any court by the production of a copy of Iris Oifigiúil purporting to contain a list published therein pursuant to subsection (4) of this section or section 8.
of the National Monuments (Amendment) Act, 1954, or a notice published therein pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, being a list or notice in which is specified the monument or archaeological area, as the case may be, aforesaid.

Article 6
Acquisition of national monuments etc., by Commissioners.

(1) The Commissioners may, with the consent of the Minister, acquire by agreement or compulsorily—

(a) any monument that is, in their opinion, a national monument,
(b) part of such a monument, or
(c) any land that is in the vicinity of such a monument and is intended to be used by them for the provision of facilities for persons having access to the monument under the National Monuments Acts, 1930 to 1987, and the Commissioners may so acquire any such monument or land whether they or a local authority are or are not the guardians of the monument and whether a preservation order is or is not in force in regard thereto.

(2) The amount of the price or compensations to be paid by the Commissioners for any property acquired by them under this section shall, in default of agreement, be fixed under and in accordance with the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, and that Act shall apply accordingly with any necessary modifications.

(3) Sections 69 to 83 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (as adapted or amended by or under any subsequent enactment), shall apply, with any necessary modifications, to any price or compensation payable under this section and to the conveyance to the Commissioners of any property acquired under this section and, for the purposes of the application, the Commissioners shall be deemed to be the promoters of the undertaking and this Act shall be deemed to be the special Act.

(4) The price or compensation payable on the acquisition of property under this section shall, to such extent as may be sanctioned by the Minister, be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

(5) The Commissioners shall not acquire under this section without the consent of the Irish Land Commission any property on or forming part of land subject to a land purchase annuity or the subject of a land purchase agreement or vested or in the course of being vested in the Irish Land Commission.

(6) Where any property acquired under this section is subject, either alone or in conjunction with other land, to a land purchase annuity, payment in lieu of rent or other sum payable periodically (and not being merely rent payable under a contract of tenancy) payable to the Irish Land Commission –

(a) the Commissioners shall as from the date on which they acquire, or enter on and take possession of, the land, whichever date is the earlier, become and be liable for payment to the said Commission of such periodical sum, or such portion thereof as shall be apportioned by the said Commission on the property, as if the property had been transferred to the Commissioners by the owner thereof on that date,
(b) the Commissioners shall be entitled, if they so think fit, to redeem the periodical sum or the portion thereof aforesaid, and
Article 7.
Removal of national monuments to museums, etc.
(1) Where the Commissioners or a local authority are the owners of a national monument, the Commissioners or the authority (as the case may be) may, if in their opinion they can do so without undue injury to the monument and it is desirable for the protection or preservation of the monument or in the interests of archaeology or for any other reason to do so, and with, in case the authority are the owners of the monument, the consent of the Commissioners, remove the monument or any part of it, and deposit it and keep it deposited in a public museum, or other place, in the State approved of for the time being for the purpose by the Minister.

(2) A monument deposited under this section in a museum shall while so deposited be open to inspection by the public in like manner and to the like extent as the other objects in the museum.

Article 8.
Inspection of historic monuments.
(1) The Commissioners may cause such inspections, investigations and reports as they may direct (either generally or particularly) to be made by their officers, servants, agents or other persons duly authorised by them in that behalf in regard to—

(a) historic monuments and places where the Commissioners have reason to believe that historic monuments exist, and

(b) restricted areas and sites that the Commissioners have reason to believe to be the sites of wreck or archaeological objects.

(2) The Commissioners, their officers, servants or agents, or other persons duly authorised by the Commissioners in that behalf, may for the purpose of performing their functions under this section enter on any lands or premises and there do all such things as may reasonably be necessary for the purposes of those functions.

Article 9.
Power of Commissioners and local authorities to make bye-laws.
(1) The Commissioners with the approval of the Minister, or a local authority with the approval of the Commissioners, as the case may be, may, for the purposes of their functions under this Act, make bye-laws in relation to any national monument of which they are the owners or the guardians.

(2) A person who contravenes a bye-law under this section shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) Copies of a bye-law under this section shall he displayed at, or in the vicinity of, any national monument to which it relates in such manner and place as, in the opinion of the Commissioners or the local authority concerned, as the case may be, are best calculated to bring the bye-law to the attention of those at or in the vicinity of the monument.

Article 10.
Acceptance of voluntary contributions.
The Commissioners or a local authority may accept voluntary contributions towards the cost of, or voluntary assistance in the performance of, any of their functions under the National Monuments Acts, 1930 to 1987, or in relation to the carrying out of an archaeological excavation authorised by the Commissioners by licence under section 26 of the Principal Act if the conditions (if any) attached by the donor to the acceptance thereof are not inconsistent with those functions or the carrying out of the excavation.

Article 11.
Amendment of section 2 of Principal Act.
Section 2 of the Principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution of the following definition for the definition of “monument”: “monument” includes the following, whether above or below the surface of the ground or the water and whether affixed or not affixed to the ground—

(a) any artificial or partly artificial building, structure or erection or group of such buildings, structures or erections,

(b) any cave, stone or other natural product, whether or not forming part of the ground, that has been artificially carved, sculptured or worked upon or which (where it does not form part of the place where it is) appears to have been purposely put or arranged in position, he may require the person to give him an account of how he came by the object, and if the person fails or refuses, without reasonable excuse, to do so or gives information that he knows to be false or misleading, he shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not have effect unless the accused when required to give the account was told in ordinary language by the member of the Garda Síochána concerned what the effect of the failure or refusal might be.

(3) Any information given by a person in compliance with a requirement under subsection (1) of this section shall not be admissible in evidence against that person or his spouse in any proceedings, civil or criminal, other than proceedings for an offence under that subsection.

Article 21.

Duty to give name and address to member of Garda Síochána.

(1) Where a member of the Garda Síochána suspects that a person has committed a specified offence under the National Monuments Acts, 1930 to 1987, and so alleges to the person, the member may demand of the person his name and address and may, if the person refuses to give his name and address or gives a name or address that the member has reasonable grounds for believing to be false or misleading, arrest the person without warrant.

(2) Where a person, when his name and address is demanded of him under this section, refuses or fails to give his name and address or gives a name and address which is false or misleading, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Article 22.

Powers of search and seizure.

(1) If a justice of the District Court is satisfied, by information on oath and in writing furnished by a member of the Garda Síochána, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that evidence relating to the commission of an offence under the National Monuments Acts, 1930 to 1987, is to be found in any building or part of a building or in any vehicle, vessel, aircraft or hovercraft or in any other place whatsoever, he may issue to the member a search warrant in relation to such place.

(2) A search warrant under this section shall operate to authorise the member of the Garda Síochána named in the warrant, accompanied by any other members of the Garda Síochána, to enter, within one week from the date of the warrant, and if necessary by the use of force, any building or part of a building or any vehicle, vessel, aircraft or hovercraft or any other place named in the warrant, and to search it and any person found there, and to seize anything found there or on any such person that may be such evidence as aforesaid.

(3) A member of the Garda Síochána acting under the authority of a search warrant under this section may

(a) demand of a person found at the place of search his name and address, and

(b) if the person refuses to give his name and address or gives a name and address that the member has reasonable grounds for believing to be false or misleading, arrest the person without warrant.

(4) Any person who obstructs or attempts to obstruct a member of the Garda Síochána acting under the authority of a search warrant under this section or who, when his name and address is demanded of him pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, fails or refuses to give his name or address or gives a name or address that is false or misleading shall be guilty of an offence.
