Fifty students of the "Brianda" will celebrate on Thursday 13 the World Radio Day live on RADIO ARREBATO

For the sixth consecutive year RADIO ARREBATO and the IES "Brianda de Mendoza" will jointly celebrate World Radio Day, holding a special live program on Thursday, February 13, from 10:00 to 14:00 in the downtown lobby, where fifty hundred students will make different spaces, coinciding with World Radio Day, promoted by Unesco.

During these four hours of broadcasting, fifty students of ESO and Bachillerato - between 10 and 18 years old - will pass through the microphones of this educational station making various spaces previously prepared in the classrooms by all the students -about 400- and teachers of the departments of Language, Geography and History, Modern Languages, Physics and Chemistry, Economics, Physical Education, Economics and Orientation.

The common theme this year will be "Diversity"
Radio Canal Extremadura celebrates Radio Day with a special program from our morning magazine "The Sun rises in the West". We will carry out the three hours of the program live from the Faculty of Communication of the University of Extremadura. As this year's motto is "Radio and diversity", we will give participation to different profiles linked to the wonderful world of radio. The guys from Onda Campus (the UEX university radio), Radio ASPACEBA and participants of "Radio Abril" associated with the Literacy Plan of Extremadura will be with us. We will also be accompanied by kids from different school radios (Radio Llera, Radio Talavera La Real and Radio Edu from the I.E.S. Monfragüe de Plasencia). A former inmate of the Badajoz penitentiary center tells us about his experience with the radio workshop that Onda Campus teaches inside the pacense prison. And we also discussed the past, present and future of radio with the journalist María Jesús Almeida (the first radio journalist in Extremadura) and with the students of the Faculty of Communication. All this seasoned with music.

PORA - NETWORK OF SCHOOLS POLA RADIO
Cooperative work of the Network Schools according to the following proposal: Only 75 years after the closure of the Austwitch concentration camp, the memories of the victims of the Holocaust followed, which turned diversity into punishment. In these turbulent times, when the limits are closed to differentiate ourselves, we are the Schools in which we must put more effort into educating in diversity, because our schools are full of people from different cultures and who always make community and learn to live together / turning them into a common and unique social environment, full of variety and wealth. This way of looking at society in schools should be an example for non-school environments, for example, we are diverse, but very similar. Therefore, our proposal for this year is as follows: you only have to create and record a very, very short advertising spot (so that we can better participate in more centers and do not take too long) without music, which we will emphasize on the value of diversity, in its importance and necessary for daily life, as it happens in our centers.

Chenoa, Laura Pausini, Cepeda... Nuestros artistas celebran el Día Mundial de la Radio

Corría el año 1904 cuando el inventor italiano Guglielmo Marconi presentaba la primera patente de la radio. Más de un siglo después, sigue siendo uno de los medios de difusión más importantes de nuestra sociedad, aunando noticias y entretenimiento de una forma única y especial. En Cadena Dial somos muy conscientes de ello y más en el día de hoy, 13 de febrero, #DíaMundialDeLaRadio.
In the speech on World Radio Day in 2016, Ban Ki-Moon, the UN Secretary General, confirmed an idea that, if we look in detail at our most recent history, is unappealable: “Radio can be a lifesaver in times of crisis and emergency. In societies devastated, plagued by catastrophe, or desperately in need of news, people find life-saving information on the radio. (...) Radio can be useful in emergency response operations and help with reconstruction ”, Ki-Moon affirmed in a few words that today, immersions in Covid-19 psychosis, are more necessary than ever.

Radio in times of health crisis

"RADIO, SCIENCE AND MEDICINE"
In times of crisis, the voice transmits emotions more emotions than ever, companion, the radio is close, immediate and serves as a refuge for the elderly in the Covid-19 crisis.
Our ways of communication in times of crisis gives voice to moments of anguish. The voice becomes asylum, refuge. In times of absolute uncertainty, radio offers focus and context, accompanies without disturbing, comforts, helps, reassures, amuses and relieves.
Finally there is something extraordinary in the spoken word that is now more essential than ever: its ability to communicate not only information or ideas, but also emotions. It is about that function that is in the air, in continuous reality, the word and the voice of the radio.
