TIYA STELAE FIELD and ADDADI MARIAM ROCK-HEWN CHURCH

Transfer to Tiya Stelae field which is registered in UNESCO's world heritage list. Tiya Stelae field contains 36 monuments and several megaliths standing in the field bear swords, plants and other tools. The monuments are remains of an ancient Ethiopian culture dating back b/n 10th-12th centuries. While driving to Tiya visit Addadi Mariam rock-hewn church built by King Lalibela in 12th c and as to the church's sources it is contemporary with the churches found in Lalibela town. On the way back to Addis, visit Melka Kunture archaeological site. Melka Kunture is a Palaeolithic site. This site has yielded several eco facts and artifacts. A museum consisting of four buildings exhibits the artefacts and skeletons dating back to 1.8 million years.
