

Submission #38

Personal information

Name Idowu Adewale

Organisation Media Rights Agenda

Email address idowu@mediarightsagenda.org

Country/region Nigeria/West Africa

Gender Male

How would you define the stakeholder community or communities to which you belong? Civil society

Questions

1. What are your priorities for issues that should be addressed through the Internet Universality framework in each of these five categories?

Rights	Protection of human rights online, which include: Freedom of expression, rights to information, etc.
Openness	Internet should be open to all without any form of discrimination
Accessibility	Internet should be accessible to all without discrimination of colour, sex, language, religion, etc.
Multistakeholder participation	Civil society, ISPs, government and private bodies should all be involved in decision making.

Cross-cutting indicators

2. Are there any existing indicators with which you are familiar that you think it would be useful to include in the ROAM indicators framework?

Rights

Openness

Censorship

Accessibility

Affordability

Multistakeholder participation

Cross-cutting indicators

3. What do you think are the most important gaps in data/evidence required for monitoring Internet Universality and the ROAM principles? What approaches do you think could help to address these in your country, region or area of work?

Rights

Awareness - More awareness should be done around these rights

Openness

Accessibility

Availability of necessarily information from ISPs- ISPs should make available necessarily information.

Multistakeholder participation

Few hands in decision making process - All stakeholders involved in internet related issues must all join hands together.

Cross-cutting indicators

4. What experience or views do you have of indicators relating to the Internet which are concerned with gender and with children and young people?

Accessibility - Internet should be available to all without any form of discrimination

References - <http://africaninternetrights.org/>

5. How do you think you might use the indicator framework for Internet Universality once it has been developed?

Promote it at International, National and local stakeholders meetings.

Distribute materials that emerge from it at stakeholders meetings.

Promote the content on social media through engagements with stakeholders.

6. How do you think that other stakeholders might use the framework?

Replicate it at their National and Local levels.

Carrying out more sensitization and promotions around this framework.

Organize meetings to discuss this framework..

7. Please add any other comments that you think will be helpful to UNESCO in developing the indicators framework.

Censorship and affordability should be linked to these indicators.

8. Please upload any documents that you think will be helpful here. african-declaration-english-final.pdf

(<https://en.unesco.org/sites/default/files/webform/african-declaration-english-final.pdf>)

Please indicate here if you do NOT want your contribution to be published on the UNESCO Internet Universality Indicators consultation platform.