

Submission # 81

Name:GUO Dezheng

Organization:Institute of Scientific and Technical Information

Country/Region:China

How would you define the stakeholder community or communities to which you belong?

Government

Are there any suggestions that you wish to make in respect of the proposed themes, questions and indicators which are included in the framework as it stands?

1. Provide an explanation about the "Internet", which includes not only the fixed internet but also the mobile Internet.
2. Provide an explanation about the necessity of setting the time limit to the quantitative index.
3. Modify the first Indicator in B.8 of "The internet universality indicators – Category R – Rights" to:
 - Evidence of self-censorship by journalists/citizens
4. Add "e-science" to second Indicator in A.1 of "The internet universality indicators – Category O – Openness", Suggest modification to
 - Existence of legal and regulatory frameworks to enable e-commerce, e-science digital signatures, cyber-security, data protection and consumer protection
5. Modify "B.3 Does the government facilitate free and open-source software (FOSS)?" to "B.3 Does the government facilitate open interfaces and standard of open data?" in "The internet universality indicators – Category O – Openness".
 - Government policy towards open interfaces and standard of open data
 - Extent to which open interfaces and standard of open data is used in government departments
6. Add an indicator in B.2 of "The internet universality indicators – Category A – Accessibility of all":
 - Number of devices connecting with the Internet
7. Add a Question and an Indicator in "The internet universality indicators – Category A – Accessibility of all":
B.6 Does it exist of national information search platforms for all■
 - The number of national information search platforms (search engine, national institutional repository)
8. Add an Indicator in C.5 of "UNESCO internet universality indicators -

- Cross-Cutting indicators”:

- Proportion of adult citizens using online shopping services
9. Modify the Indicators of “A.3 Do women and men participate to the same degree in use of online services?” in “UNESCO internet universality indicators -- Cross-Cutting indicators”■
- Proportion of adult citizens using e-government services in specific categories, disaggregated by gender
 - Proportion of adult citizens using online financial services, disaggregated by gender
 - Proportion of adult citizens using online learning services,

disaggregated by gender

- Proportion of adult citizens using online health services, disaggregated by gender
- Proportion of adult citizens using online shopping services, disaggregated by gender

10. Add a Question to “UNESCO internet universality indicators – Cross - Cutting indicators”:

C.8 Does the government have strategies to address long term availability of open content and open data on Internet?

Indicator:

- Existence of policies and strategies and implementation in practice of long term preservation