

EVALUATION QUESTIONNAIRE TO BE COMPLETED BY ASPnet COORDINATORS to be sent before 31 July 2019

Instructions

Please take a few minutes to complete this evaluation form. Your comments are very important.

Confidentiality clause

All responses are strictly confidential. The data collected will only be used for internal purposes within UNESCO's intercultural dialogue programme.

Surname, first name: _____

Country: _____ Date: _____

Institution (National Commission for UNESCO): _____

1. How many students were involved in this pilot?

2. How many schools were involved in this pilot?

3. How many teacher evaluation questionnaires have you received as a result of the pilot "Writing Peace"? _____

4. "Writing Peace" contributes to the acquisition of intercultural skills (for example, students are now able to explain the difference between language and writing system, they understand that writing systems inherit from each other because they are the reflection of cultures, interconnected and evolving))

Yes

No

5. Do you think that intercultural skills acquired during childhood enhance cultural diversity, promote respect for others and reduce discrimination?

Yes

No

6. Would you recommend that the manual "Writing Peace" be taught systematically in your country's school curricula and in teacher training institutes?

Yes

No

Other comments :

Email: _____

Telephone: _____