Call for concept and financial proposals for 2022 World Press Freedom Day global awareness raising campaign

Background and Justification:

World Press Freedom Day (3 May) celebrates the fundamental principles of press freedom, to evaluate press freedom around the world, to defend the media from attacks on their independence and to pay tribute to journalists who have lost their lives in the exercise of their profession.

UNESCO coordinates the commemorations of the Day, which involve around 100 celebrations in countries around the globe and leads the main celebration by organizing a global conference together with the host government and various partners working in the field of freedom of expression. The theme of the Day changes every year to highlight the urgent contemporary challenges facing press freedom.

On 3 May, UNESCO launches a global media awareness-raising campaign, linked to the theme of World Press Freedom Day. The campaign mobilizes top newspapers and media organizations and leading journalists, experts and activists around the world, who disseminate the campaign across different media and social media outlets. See annex for examples of previous WPFD campaigns.

For the 2022 edition, World Press Freedom Day theme “Journalism under Surveillance” will focus on digital challenges in relation to media and press freedom. Between 2-4 May 2022, UNESCO together with the Republic of Uruguay will host the Global Conference. The conference will bring together policymakers, journalists, media representatives, activists, researchers and media and legal experts from around the world to explore and discuss topics such as the digital era’s impact on freedom of expression and the safety of journalists, access to information and privacy and the interconnections between these fundamental rights.

Objective:

The global media campaign for the 2022 World Press Freedom Day should engage top media newspapers, outlets and broadcasters (TV and radio) from around the world to disseminate the campaign materials and raise awareness about the issues of the Day’s theme in a way non-specialized publics can easily understand and connect to.

Deliverables:

The Contractor will develop and execute the 2022 World Press Freedom global awareness raising campaign, by producing the following deliverables, which involve activities below, but are not limited to.

All deliverables should be ready at least 4 weeks in advance of 3 May, to carry out media outreach on time.
